(From a Staff Correspondent)

PETERSBURG, September 9.—Ryan's Colts spread the batonine over the Goobers in the final away-from-home game of the season, and gathered for a meeting of the contestants in the last two games of the contest.

Targeted, Barnes and Hirsch had a pitching duel, each twirler allowing only three hits. Hirsch, however, had the better of Hirsch, as shown by the nine Goobers who went out via the strike-out route.

Richmond made two of their three hits in the first scoring, while only one of the Petersburg athletes was able to do as third, that being Agnew in the opening session.

As started, Hirsch walked Schwertzler, Newton hit in Hirsch and was out at first, Schwertzler taking second, progress to third when Berger was fanned. Busch to Barnett, and scored on Barnes' single to centre. Ryan closed the tining by flying out to Slim.

A slender opened the second inning by doubling in right and was sacrificed to third by Hunting. Ryan hit an easy one to Agnew, who promptly allowed the bullet to go through him. Snyder sacrifice. Ryan was cut stealing, and Hartman to Simons. This ended the scoring for the afternoon. Hirsch had a good game, but after two men were down in the sixth inning, Two fast double plays kept the Goobers from doing any damage, one coming in the sixth and the other in the seventh inning.

Ryan, Snyder, Barnes and Simons, featured in fielding.

Nowowin, Colig, will meet

Richmond in the final series of the season at Broad Street Park, Richmond.

The schedule calls for four games, with a double-header Saturday, the Goobers having the game on the third, the Tigers on Monday.

But Manager Ryan is uncertain if it will be played, as he has only four pitchers to take on the burden. Some shortstop from Charleston is expected to join the squad in Richmond tomorrow, and should he report in, he will be put in the Reynolds' position, which means Monday with the Goobers team of Cuban players.

Word came yesterday that the game that New York, winner of the Penn League pennant, would stage a series of games with Winston-Salem, winner of the North Carolina championship, the two teams to play six games starting Monday, September 14, and the gate receipts will be equally divided between the players of both teams. The score:

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY.

Brooklyn at New York, (two games), Chicago at Pittsburgh, Philadelphia at Boston, St. Louis at Cincinnati.

NEW YORK, September 9.—New York, returning home from a long road trip, was prevented from gaining on Boston by losing to Brooklyn, 3 to 2. O'Toole recently brought from Pittsburgh, had his best fielding, with ten errors, but the Quakers hitless in the nightcap—Pirates trim the Cubs. Corridore makes wild heave.

WILL USE DIFFERENT STYLES OF PLAY

PERCY HOUGHTON, of Harvard University.

With the football season opening on October 21, football enthusiasts are already eloquently debating the staging of the Michigan-Harvard game—a game for which they have waited for fifteen years. The game, which takes place on October 30, will be the first big duel between the East and West on the gridiron for many years, and it is to be expected that the old and new styles of play, Percey Houghton, the Harvard coach, stands for the old style of play, and judging from the veteran's record, he has given up the past few years, his judgment is backed by reason. Coach Vost, of Michigan, on the other hand, stands for the new school of thought, and with it has cleaned up practically every team in the West. It will be a meeting of championship eleves when the West comes to the East to play together. The question is, do both coaches are already busily going over the candidates for this year, and expect to turn out a team that will show anything they have yet accomplished. With Captain Brinkley back in the Harvard line-up this year, Houghton has a team of veterans, and the line-up of last year's veterans have reported to Vost, and he should once more produce a representative team. The result of this supreme test of the new and the old styles of play will undoubtedly have a great deal of influence on the work of the coaches of both the East and the West next season.

DAVIS TWIRLS NO-HIT GAME

BOSTON, September 9.—The Braves split even with the Phillips in a double-head-to-head, losing the first, 19 to 3, and winning the second, 7 to 6. New York and Chicago were bested, the Braves having taken half a game on these two teams.

In the second game Davis, the former Williams College star, pitched a no-hitter, and a remarkable performance considering that this was the first full game he has pitched for Boston.

Three players opposed the Braves, who had little trouble in hitting them. Another double-header between the same teams will be played to-morrow, the score:
